

WHERE TO FIND THE FREE N95 MASKS

1.26.2022

Major pharmacy chains participating should start receiving their distributions this week.

However, it is important to know that NOT ALL LOCATIONS MAY RECEIVE MASKS & EACH LOCATION MAY BE SET UP DIFFERENTLY.

Please be patient and courteous with these essential stores and workers as they support our fight against COVID-19.

Americans are limited to three free N95 masks per person, according to the Biden administration.

CVS: CVS will start providing free N95 masks as part of the program they receive supply from the Federal Government. The pharmacy chain did not provide any details on timing.

Kroger: The nation's largest grocery chain anticipates its allotment will arrive later this week. Customers are encouraged to visit their nearest pharmacy store for theirs.

Meijer: Meijer has received an estimated 3 million masks, with many locations now distributing the masks. The N95s will be in boxes found on a table near the greeter's stand at the grocery entrance of all Meijer stores. Boxes will be in piles of three for customers to take.

Rite Aid: All Rite Aid locations will be participating in the program with some stores starting to distribute the N95s this week. All stores should have masks to hand out by early February. Customers will be able to pick up three masks per person at a display in store or at the pharmacy counter, supply permitting.

Walgreens: The pharmacy chain will start handing out N95 masks in several stores starting Friday, Jan. 28, adding more participating locations in the following days and weeks. Stores where masks are available will have signage indicating they have masks.

Walmart: Walmart, as well as Sam's Club, will also provide free N95 masks.
